

- This issue is planned to be updated -

JAPAN REVIEW

Vol.3 No.1
Summer 2019
ISSN 2433-4456

Asia and Europe: One Hundred Years from the Paris Peace Conference

One Hundred Years after the Paris Peace
Conference: A Welcomed Change in Mutual Perceptions

Valérie Niquet

Japan at the Paris Peace Conference of 1919:
A Centennial Reflection

Naoko Shimazu

The Wilsonian Vision for a New Liberal International Order: Symbolic Diplomacy
at the Paris Peace Conference

Naoko Shimazu

Hundredth Anniversary of the Treaty of Versailles: Meanings and Implications

Kerry Brown

The Rise and Fall of the Liberal International Order: 1919-2019

Yuichi Hosoya

Restructuring the Maritime Order

Shigeki Sakamoto

The Obligation of Self-Restraint in Undelimited
Maritime Areas

Kentaro Nishimoto

The Present and Future of Multilateralism and Expectations for Japan

Izumi Nakamitsu

The Role for Middle Powers in the Free and Open Indo-Pacific: Looking at Opportunities for Canada and Australia

Jonathan Berkshire Miller and Thomas Wilkins

THE JAPAN INSTITUTE OF
INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

JIIA