JIIA Symposium

The Formation of the San Francisco System

— From Occupation to Peace—

Organized by the Japan Institute of International Affairs (JIIA)

Sponsored by Japan Center for Asian Historical Records

The Japan Institute of International Affairs is pleased to announce that it will be hosting a symposium entitled “The Formation of the San Francisco System: From Occupation to Peace” on Monday, October 15, 2018.

This symposium seeks to review how Japan regained its sovereignty through the San Francisco Peace Treaty and returned to the international community, paying attention to both domestic and international contexts. An effort will also be made to deepen our understanding, from multiple and broad perspectives, about the regional order in East Asia.

If you wish to attend, please register by completing and sending the attached reply form by e-mail (sympo_181015@jia.or.jp) or FAX no later than Tuesday, October 9. In view of the limited number of seats available, participants may have to be selected on a first-come, first-served basis.
